Big Herman Pillette had one of his good games on tap in the opener and the Angels never had a chance to do anything to his offerings until the last two innings, by which time the Bells had put over enough runs to ice the struggle. Lefty Peters and Al Smith, who divided the Angel hurling burden on an 8-1 basis, both had their off moments and the Bells profited thereby.

In the supper shift Bruce Cunningham, despite a tendency to pitch elsewhere than over the plate, defeated Wee Ludolph in what might just as well be called a hurling duel. Cunningham ai-

Jack Munro, Sydney match-maker, has offered $10,000, transportation and a percentage of the gate, Snell said. The Tacoman's recent victory in Los Angeles over Billy Grimes, holder of featherweight, lightweight and welterweight titles for the Antipodes, has made Australian promoters anxious to feature Snell.

Coleman, who very recently celebrated his twenty - first birthday, cilimated a week of perfect golf to defeat the Southern California junior champion for the most valuable trophy awarded in national amasteu circles. Both youthful finalists achieved the honer of golfing for the $1000. Spreakels Cup by turning back the most dangerous challenging field in the history of the recort afair. Seaver was forced to eliminate Casie Carleton, twice Texas amateur champion, in one semifinals match yeste 'ay, while Coleman was winning the most sensational clash of the week from E. S. MIRACLE may occur today, but it looks as if nothing
short of that will stop Bobby Jones from "taking"
Charles "Chick" Evans in the finals of the national amateur golf championship at Minnikahda.
Even if the peerless Robert Tyre did not pousess the knaca
of shooting simply uncanny golf
in the pinches, his record of beating in succession two such sterling golfers as Jimmy Johnston and Francis Ouimet, a former champion, by the outlandish
scores of 10 and 9 and 11 and 10 would establish him as a 100-to1 favorite over Evans. And Evans is a former and two-time winmer of the national crown himself, having captured it at the Merion Cricket Club in 1016 and repeating at the Engineers' club in 1920. But even a steady and at times brilliant game of par golf such as Evans displayed yeaterday is not enough to cope with the superbrilliant, under-par game of Bobby Jones. It is not likely that Minnikahda will see a miracle. MIRACLE may occur today.

"Windy" Winsor, who wasted no time at all in predicting that Jack Dempsey would knock out Jack Sharkey, is somewhat chary about making a prediction on the forthcoming championship battle in which Dempsey will attempt to regain his title.

"Sharkey never beat anybody, and he's always been a hound. It was easy to pick that one. Sharkey quit. But I gotta wait behore I make a prediction about the Chleago battle. You see," said Dempsey's manager of the ham n'egg days, "Dempsey ain't so young as he used to be. The legs cracked on him against Sharkey. I want some dope on him from my friends when he cuts out predent-leather shufflin' and begins training. Then, you know, Dempsey is the gay that draws the $2,000,000 gates, not Tunney. That may decide the winner, huh?"

Bert Colima, who has been in the fight game so long that he has seen a lot of 'em come and go, is to be signally honored tonight. The boys of the Asociacion Deportiva Hispano Americana (Spanish-American Athleric Association) are to present him with a loving cup during a program of song and dance at the Polytechnic High School auditorium.

The demonstration will celebrate the tenth anniversary of Bert's, career as a pugifist. Many fighters are all washed up after half that time in the ring, or less, and Bert's record attests to his skill and dexferity with the padded mittens. He has been a headliner for a long time, and he's still very much in the lime-light.

ANGELS SPLIT DOUBLE-HEADER

BELLS SCORE PAIR With one away in the fourth, the Bells scored their two on a walk to Jones. Slade's infield swat, another walk to Whitney and Ludolph's blooper single to right. A nice run-ning eatch by Wels of Swanson's Texas leaguer prevented further scor-ing.

Texas leaguer prevented further coring.

Gus Sandberg tied it up in the fifth when he slammed one of Ludolph's offerings over the left-field wall for a homer.

Bradil opened the seventh with a double to right. Sandberg hit to Jones, trapping Brazili between second and third, but Frank reached third safely and Sandberg second when Jones uncorked a willd heave. Hannah, batting for Cunningham, was thrown out by Slade, the runners sticking close to their sacks, and then Cox was walked to fill the bases. Whereupon Johnny Mitchell delivered his winning single and the game was over.

In the opener Evar Swanson put the Bells out in front with a run in the first inning when he doubled, stole third and scored when he worked a double steal with Finn, who had walked.

Unevaporated liquid particles waste power

This old stuff about "youth beng served" certainly applies to the women's National tennis championship tournament in which the four semifinalists average 20 years of age. Mrs. A. H.
Chapin is the "old grandma" of the outfit at 25 years of age, while Heien Wills is 21. Helen Jacobs is 15 and Betty Nuthall of Engiand is only 16 years of age. One might easily guess from a slant at those statistics that women's tennis, as it is being played today,
is no game for the feeble in winds or limb. The fact is that the average woman top-notcher can make a surprisingly good showing
against the high-ranking males
and can beat the tar out of the ordinarily good tennis player.

The press dispatches don't indicate it but the semifinals of the National Women's Tennis Championship tournament is a 73 per cent California affair. Helen Wills and Helen Jacobs, of course, are well known as California products
but this Mrs. A. H. Chapin, Jr., of Massachusetts is none other
that Charlotte Hosmer, likewise
a Californian. She married young Chapin a little over a year ago and went to live in the East but she is a strictly California product. Her victories in two successive days over Joan Fry of England and Mrs. Mallory, the defending champion, are the outstanding accomplishment of her career. Ordinartly she is not consistent but reports indicate that she is and if she is she will give any of them a tussie.

THE CHURCH OF THE TRANSPORMING COVENANT

This Church, organized under the leadership of Annie C. Bill, has for its mission the introduction and establishment in world consciousness of the Science of organization as taught by Mary Baker Eddy. It advances true Christian Science in no way disrupts it nor rejects a single fact in Mrs. Eddy's teachings, immeasurably increasing appreciation of her life work; never distracting from her achievements. It is demonstrating her discovery of the great system of mental power, the common consent of the governed to spiritual leadership, which will change the whole of human consciousness from a pathway of death unto a living unfoldment of Life

There are some heavy expenses ahead. If any sort of farm-relief legislation is passed by the Seventieth Congress it will call for a considerable appropriation. Cruis-er building undertaken to insure naval pari-ty will cost about $300,000,000, spread over the years of construction.

The new Congress will probably make a big appropriation for Mississippi flood con-trol and it is expected also to take definite action on Colorado River development. Muscle Shoals will get definite consideration on its ancient power problem—consideration which is apt to be costly.

No taxpayer need feel that he is paying too much when he is contributing his legal share toward great public works that are naily to the general welfare and prosperity of the nation. All such works not only add directly to the well-being of the country as a whole, but they subtract directly from the heavy costs of relief and tempo rary emergency measures. Such public expenditure is a sound investment yielding a definite return either in saving or actual production. The country understands what lack of flood control in the Mississippi Valley has cost in the past and if not supplied. ley has cost in the past and, if not supplied, will cost again in the future. It does not yet so clearly comprehend the immense losses caused by the waste of the waters of the Colorado River nor the potential flood perils in the Imperial Valley.

In view of these probable expenditures there is no certainty of any great surplus in the national treasury on June 30, 1928, and the tax cuts, if any, are likely to fall short of the optimistic forecasts of the poor-

HARDING'S GREETING

HARDING'S GREETING
While we were attending the first showing of "Way Down East" in Washington, D. C., Fresident Harding was gracious enough to invite Mr. Orifith, Dorothy and me to luncheon, Dorothy and I were exceedingly nervous as we were unhered into the room where the President awaited us.

The President and I stood a moment looking at each other, and then he, held out both arms and cried. "Lillian!"

I ran into his embrace—and we were no longer nervous. After we had eaten, he showed us around the exceutive mansion. Then Mrs. Harding showed me Lincoln's hed.

When we left, Mrs. Harding gave me a great cluster of roses to take to my mother, who was ill in her room at the hotel. The handsome President held my hand as we left, expatiated at length on the greatness of Ohio, and explained it by saying that he and I had come from there!

Going to Church
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 22.—(To the Editor of The Times: I Having come in contact with both religious and nonreligious, during a somewhat varied career upon this mundane sphere, and, after having held one minor and one major position in church organizations, I have arrived at the conclusion that the unbeliever, is, on the whole, about as an honest and upright a citizen as the professing Christian.

So why the necessity of the former "going to church" to bear doctrines expounded which are often an insuit to his intelligence? Especially since, if he so destres, he can practically have the church brought to him via his radio set.

Seanor, member of a Los Angeles bail-bond firm, and O. Peter Channesian, attorney, who were indicted recently on a charge of accepting $750 from John Welch to "Rx" a case in Federal court.

In the demurrer the defendants charge that the indictment was obtained under illegal procedure in that a deputy District Attorney was permitted to remain in the grand Jury room while the true bill was being voted.

In answer to the charges made in the indictment, Channesian asserts that he accepted the $750 only as a legitimate attorney's fee and that there was nothing illegal about his agreement with Welch.

Meanwhile Dep Dist.-atity. Murray threw another bomb into the defenser ranks by making public the records of another questionable ball-bond case in which it appears that forfeiture of a bail bond was deferred for many months before it was eventually ordered.

The case cited is that of Miller W. Davis, arrested February 5, 1925, on a charge of burglary. According to the record he was released on $1000 ball. He failed to appear in court for trial April 23, 1925, and the bail was ordered for feeted.
